VICTRY FOR WASHINGTON!

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON – HUSKY MARCHING BAND

WHAT A HISTORY! For 75 years the Husky Band has stood uniquely on its own as a giant entertainment force supremely loved amongst the many purple and gold clad loyalists that compose the Husky Nation! Director Dr. Brad McDavid has a rich appreciation for the role as keeper of one of the University of Washington's most beloved traditions and has once again brought together the talents of all 240 members strong to create another unforgettable musical compilation encompassing the sites and sounds of an autumn afternoon in Husky Stadium.

VICTORY FOR WASHINGTON!

Not just an appropriate name for the latest effort by the University of Washington's musical ambassadors. It's rousing up-tempo strains have been propelling the Husky Marching Band down the field ever since the words were first penned in 1936 by UW student Tom Herbert and set to music by classmate George Larson in 1937. For more than 65 years its catchy melody has spurred generations of fans to cheer on the Huskies to countless victories.

So prepare yourself for another incomparable musical journey by one of the nation's premiere college marching bands. It's guaranteed to be unforgettable when your tour guide is none other than the Husky Band!

VICTORY FOR WASHINGTON:

Vict'ry for Washington
For the purple and the gold
Vict'ry for Washington
Hear the Husky cry of old to win
The Husky pack is fighting on again
Hear the loyal rooters sing
Vict'ry for Washington
Our alma mater will ring.
